

Following the blasts which rocked the defense plant corporation-built structures. The $5,000,000 plant was in operation only two months. Cause of the blasts was undetermined.

CIRCUS CHIEFS HELD IN FIRE FATAL TO 145

Most Of Disaster Victims
In Connecticut Are Boys And Girls

(Continued from Page One)

The worst circus disaster in history.

Many of the injured who jammed Hartford's four hospitals are in critical condition and may die. Identification of the dead is proceeding slowly because many of the bodies are burned beyond recognition.

Stark tragedy, that developed when flames first started to consume the giant tent and precipitated the headlong rush for exits soon after the afternoon performance started, continued to be experienced by the survivors who sought out their loved ones in temporary morgues.

Circus Folk Escape

Not a single circus performer was killed, nor were any of the show's 1,000 animals injured in the fire, a survey showed. Damage was estimated by Oliver to be about $300,000.

The inquiry into the disaster received official impetus from Gov. Raymond E. Baldwin, who first directed activities of emergency agencies and then bestowed the powers of state fire marshal on State Police Commissioner Edward J. Hickey.

Hickey began the investigation by calling 20 witnesses last night and will subpoena more to appear before Coroner Frank E. Healey, Mayor William H. Mortensen appointed a committee of nine to probe the cause of the blaze.

It was disclosed that as soon as the authorities release the circus, it will return to its winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla. to assemble new equipment before resuming its road journey.

Also taking a hand in the investigation is State's Attorney Hugh Alcorn, Jr., who with his detective staff, remained on the grounds to seek clues, but there was no official pronouncement from any source as to just how the fire started.

It was reported by some eye-witnesses that the first small sheet of flame which attacked one of the big sidewalls of the tent could have been extinguished "with a bucket of water," but three ushers who were among the first to spot the flames, attempted to reach them, each carrying a bucket of water, but the rapidly expanding fire and intense heat drove them back.

Scene of Horror

From then on, the scene of horror grew. It was incredible, some of the survivors said, how quickly the huge canvas canopy became enveloped by the leaping flames. Whole sections of burning canvases fell upon the spectators, setting their clothing afire and trapping them in the resultant confusion and mad rush for the exits or anywhere they thought they might escape.

The screams of mothers and their children rose in a crescendo that added to the general terror. Yet only five men died in the holocaust and approximately the same number of women perished.

One of the more important aspects of the disaster involved the jamming of at least 60 bodies against the steel runways used to lead animals to and from the circus rings. Mayor Mortensen said these runways blocked an entire end of the arena, thus cutting off escape to the exits.

Circus performers, many of the survivors and members of the Hartford chapter, American Red

MRS. A. C. COOK DIES SUDDENLY AT RESIDENCE

Mrs. Margaret Rhoades Cook, 72, wife of Albert C. Cook, 208 North Court street, died Thursday at 5:30 p. m., following a cerebral hemorrhage. Mrs. Cook had not been well for several days preceding her death.

Mrs. Cook's death was the second in the family in less than two weeks, her daughter, Hilda, (Mrs. Carl Yale), having died June 23 in a hospital at Baton Rouge, La.

Mrs. Cook was born April 8, 1872, in Pickaway township and was married to Mr. Cook on October 24, 1894. She was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

Surviving in addition to Mr. Cook are two daughters, Ethyl and Bernice, at home; one sister, Mrs. Anna Walters, of Whisler, and one brother, Frank Rhoades, Pickaway township.

Private funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. at the home with the Rev. George L. Troutman officiating. Burial in charge of the Mader funeral home will be in Forest cemetery. The family requests that flowers be omitted.

Friends may call at the home until the hour of services.

15,000 CHILDREN LEAVE LONDON

(Continued from Page One)

capital's stations were jammed throughout the day.

Most of the evacuees were children. The stations were transformed into virtual nurseries, overflowing with cots, perambulators and toys.

Plans laid long ago by Minister of Home Security Herbert Morrison went into effect. Many of the youngsters went out without their parents, their summer clothes ticketed with their names and destinations and most of them had in their arms prized toys and possessions.

The daily exodus is expected to continue indefinitely until such a time as some effective means of combatting the flying bombs or destroying their installations along the northern coast of France is found.

Cross aided in spectacular rescue operations. The Red Cross disaster emergency committee, with its highly trained personnel, mobilized quickly and finally had more volunteers than it could use, said Robert Metcalfe, its director. "That's the way we'd rather have it," he added.

Tight police lines were thrown around the disaster scene where hundreds of frantic mothers and fathers ran to and fro, seeking their children. Some of the police were tense too, for they also had sent their boys and girls to see the circus.

Police and medical aid arrived at the scene in an astonishingly short time. The Red Cross set up registration headquarters, while police rounded up children who either had escaped from the flaming tent or had become separated from their parents. Mothers and fathers wept joyously when they found their offspring safe in the police "corral." But sorrow, for the most part, spread through the hundreds of anxious relatives and friends who converged on the circus lot or at the armory morgue attempting to identify the little victims.

Doctors and nurses toiled for many hours treating the burned and the injured. And there were priests on hand to administer the last rites to the dying.

200 INJURED IN RAIL TRAGEDY IN TENNESSEE

Pullman Carrying 60 Men
Telescopes Tender, Second Car Piles On Top

(Continued from Page One)

Help Rushes In

Red Cross workers, physicians, nurses and nurses' aides were rushed from surrounding towns and shipments of blood plasma were dispatched from Knoxville and Oak Ridge.

The cars remaining on the track, the occupants of which were described as "dazed" and suffering from shock, were hauled to Jellico early today and were to be towed to their destination.

The engineer of the train was pinned under the locomotive in the Clear Fork river.

Hospitals at Jellico, La Follette and Oak Ridge reported they were "swamped" by the number of injured brought in for treatment.

A scene of indescribable confusion immediately followed the derailment as victims screamed for help and volunteer rescuers sought to reach them in the darkness. Many of the injured were pinned in the wreckage and were forced to wait hours before they were extricated.

One witness described the scene as a "bedlam" and said that effective rescue work was impossible until the arrival of wrecking crews with acetylene torches, cranes and other equipment. Rescuers used the torches to cut through the steel of the Pullmans and pull out the victims.

Along with wrecking crews came scores of doctors and nurses, hurriedly summoned from many towns in East Tennessee. They ministered to the injured on the scene and then dispatched them by ambulance to hospitals.

The Red Cross, which sent workers at once to the site of the wreck, estimated that about 500 persons, all or most of them in the military service, were aboard the train.

The casualties were believed to have been confined principally to the two Pullmans.

MARKETS

CASH MARKET

Cash quotations made to farmers in Circleville:

Wheat	1.48
No. 2 Yellow Corn	1.12
No. 2 White Corn	1.27
Soybeans	1.86

Cream, Premium	.47
Cream, Regular	.44
Eggs	.29

POULTRY

Heavy Hens	10
Leghorn Hens	11
Fries	12
Old Roosters	12

Provided By J. W. Eschman & Sons

Open High Low Close
July-1945	160 1/2 157 1/2 160
Sept-1945	181 1/2 177 1/2 180 1/2 185 1/2
Dec-1945	185 1/2 182 1/2 185 1/2 187 1/2

OATS

Open High Low Close
July-1945	7 1/2 7 1/4 7 1/2 7 3/4
Sept-1945	7 1/4 7 1/4 7 1/4 7 1/4
Dec-1945	7 1/4 7 1/4 7 1/4 7 1/4

CLOSING LIVESTOCK MARKET

Provided By Farm Bureau GRAIN FUTURES

CHICAGO

RECEIPTS—16,000. Active, 180 lbs. to 270 lbs., $13.75; 200 lbs. to 220 lbs., $13.85.

LOCAL

Not established.

KIBITZER IN PINOCHLE GAME SLAYS PLAYER

NEW YORK, July 7—A kibitzer in a pinochle game was sought today as the killer of Dominick Erriccolo, 60, a laborer.

Erriccolo was fatally injured when he disregarded the advice of the kibitzer on how to play his cards. The disgruntled spectator of the pinochle game jammed the stem of his smoking pipe into Erriccolo's ear and then pounded the bowl with the heel of his hand. Erriccolo died before medical aid could be summoned. Erriccolo and three friends were playing cards in a vacant lot in Brooklyn when the attack occurred. The friends could give police only a vague description of the kibitzer.

FIRE WITNESSES RELATE HORROR

(Continued from Page One)

corner of the big tene where stood a canvas walled ladies' room.

But the trainer was not found himself until the last of the dead were carried from the smoking ruins of the tent and arena. She was discovered dazed and near hysteria close to the circus train sleeping cars on a railroad siding outside Hartford's city limits.

Miss Kovar took her bows gracefully when the audience applauded her skill in directing her 20 wild charges through their paces. Then she started to prod them into a chute leading from the cage in one of the circus rings, to their wagons. She looked up and saw the small tongue of flame.

"It was a tiny spurt of flame first," explained Miss Kovar, "and I didn't pay too much attention to it actually. I was more concerned with the animals, lest they get out of hand. I whipped the animals off their stands and into the chute and had all of them out but five when, in a split second, the whole corner of the tent near the entrance was eaten up by flames.

"People were lunging out of the stands, climbing over each others' backs and screaming horribly.

"But still I had to get the animals into the chute and away from the fire. I looked up for an instant and saw the flame racing along the top of the tent. The flaming embers dropped down on the animals, and for a moment I was afraid they would turn on each other—or on me. Finally, I shoved the last one outside of the arena," continued Miss Kovar, "and reached the chute just in time to see two pygmies at each other's throat. The chute was packed with enraged animals, and they had to be packed off into their steel boxes, or they would break through the wooden channel at the end of the steel chute. It became much worse when a whole wave of injured people piled up against the chute, in trying to jump over it and get to the entrance. The animals reached out for the fallen people: whether some of them were clawed, I couldn't say.

"The wave of people dammed up against the chute became so great, I began picking up children and passing them over. As I lifted the children, a pair of spotted leopards clawed out at each child trying to rake him. None of the children was hurt in this manner, and the animals finally were shoved into their boxes."

THRUST ACROSS VIRE AIMS AT GERMAN BULGE

Americans, Aided By Heavy Artillery Fire, Pushing Ahead Steadily

(Continued from Page One)

miles, thus extending the American forward moving arc to 32 miles to a point beyond St. Jean De Daye.

With the Americans locked in bitter street fighting with the Germans in La Haye, their comrades hold firm positions in the northern sector of the town, after pushing to a point two miles southwest of the communications center, and to another point one mile southeast.

On the Italian front, American troops of the Fifth Army launched a new attack toward the strategically important port of Livorno (Leghorn) on the west coast of the peninsula after occupying two-thirds of the town of Rosignano, only 12 miles below the harbor city.

The Germans are said to be manning defenses thrown up in the Livorno area for the purpose of repelling any landings by Allied forces from the sea. A headquarters communiqué said that the Nazis were stiffening their resistance all along the Italian line, not only clinging desperately to strongpoints, but employing every inhabited area into powerful defensive positions.

Eighth Army troops made further advances west of Arezzo, where strong resistance was encountered as well as in the Tiber valley north of Umbertide.

The first White Russian army, striking irresistibly toward Warsaw, was in hot pursuit after retreating Nazis after capturing Kovel.

The Germans were under constant attack by large formations of Russian fighter planes, based in heavy strength in the Kovel sector, 170 miles from the Polish capital.

Russ Move Ahead

Advanced elements of the Russian troops were reported to have gained positions only 30 miles from the vital German-held base of Wilno.

If the Russians win Wilno, their forces, commanded by Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, would be astride one of their principal rail lines which converge on Warsaw from the east.

The air war was resumed at dawn today with American heavy bombers streaking across the channel apparently following up a powerful Royal Air Force night assault on German military targets in the northern part of France.

The Nazi agency DNB reported that U. S. bombers attacked eastern Germany after flying across Czechoslovakia. British Lancasters and Halifaxes, protected by fighters, struck at several robot bomb installations and other vital targets.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur pressed his campaign to capture the three airfields on Noemfoor island, off northwest New Guinea, by sending amphibious forces to nearby Manim island, where the Americans landed after a naval and aerial bombardment.

The new landing was effected opposite Namber airfield on Noemfoor, where two airdromes already are held by the Yanks. The Japs are believed to have powerful defenses at Namber.

Other American attacks were

F.D.R., DE GAULLE STUDY PUZZLE

(Continued from Page One)

the day, the President was entertaining De Gaulle's great rival, Gen. Henri Giraud, whom the American government tried unsuccessfully to build up as the real leader of France.

As De Gaulle sat down with Mr. Roosevelt today—his second visit with the President since his arrival in Washington yesterday afternoon—there seemed to be a mutual agreement to forgive and forget.

De Gaulle, for his part, helped Mr. Roosevelt forget the slights of the past by insisting that he had come only to thank the American people for what they have done for France.

And the President, for his part, helped his guest forget the inspired stories about De Gaulle the dictator, by speaking of the brave resistance of French patriots fighting within France.

Meantime, the burning question which has made enemies of these two Allied leaders for 18 months vanished in the air-conditioned atmosphere of the state dining room—the question of recognizing the French national committee as the true government of France.

The question was not mentioned between the two men. But a spokesman for De Gaulle, who traveled with him on the plane from Algiers to Washington, dismissed it with a wave of a hand. "We have not come here to ask for recognition," he said. "We do not need it. The French government is already recognized by the people of France."

And yet a vestige of the old controversy still lingered in a little matter of protocol. The State department, in its official announcement, described the visitor merely as "General Charles De Gaulle" but the general himself, in his invitation to a reception tomorrow afternoon at the French delegation, described himself as "President du gouvernement provisoire de la République Française"—in other words, the president of the provisional government of the French Republic.

But De Gaulle paid no attention to the difference in titles and rested his case on the contention that the people of North Africa, Corsica and Metropolitan France have all rallied around him as their leader, and this is all the recognition he requires.

De Gaulle, who was given a dinner last night by Secretary of State Hull, will be the guest tonight of Acting Secretary of War Robert Patterson. At the Hull dinner, the secretary and De Gaulle acclaimed traditional American-French friendship.

reported against enemy airdromes at Sorong, at the western end of New Guinea. Thirteen Japanese barges and a coastal vessel were destroyed or damaged in attacks by other American planes.

Yanks Open Path To Life for Jap Civilians Holding Out On Saipan

(Continued from Page One)

ern coast toward Tanapag harbor.

The Japs already have lost everything of value on Saipan except Marpi point airfield where most of their troops apparently have chosen to die at the base of a sheer cliff, 600 feet high with sawtoothed edges—a rugged and weird setting for their doom.

Today they still held an entrenched pocket on the west coast, but were under heavy attack by 27th division Army troops there while the Marines pushed on northward.

The Americans on the other hand held probably nine tenths of the island including important Isely (formerly Aslito) airport, the town of Garapan and the harbor of Tanapag as well as the island's highest peak—Mount Tapotchau.

With artillery and airplanes and positions on commanding heights, Americans could turn destruction on any point in the pinioned enemy's line.

Underscoring the enemy's helplessness were activities of the American fleet now controlling the high seas for hundreds of miles in every direction from the Marianas. A fast carrier task group proved that again this week when it attacked the enemy in the Bonin islands, 600 nautical miles northward, smashing installations on Chichi Jima and Haha Jima and sinking or damaging a number of enemy ships.

There was left in the enemy garrison on Saipan but signs of desperation were apparent everywhere—in the enemy's inability to maneuver, in obvious lack of reserves, and in seemingly poor communications between Japanese units.

Last night and the night before there was extraordinary air activity by the enemy, with flying planes zooming down over battered Japanese airports on Tinian island—still in Jap hands—and at Maripi point. There was the possibility the planes were supposed to land on Saipan but they did not. At least six Japanese planes were destroyed by American forces during the two nights.

In another surprising development, the long silent Jap artillery on northern Tinian suddenly opened up last night and fired across the two and a half mile strait onto American-held southern Saipan. American batteries replied and quickly silenced the Japanese.

WHAT CAUSES EPILEPSY?

A booklet containing the opinions of famous doctors on this interesting subject will be sent FREE, while they last, to any reader writing to the Educational Division, 535 Fifth Ave., New York, N. Y., Dept. G. 1030.

TONIGHT & SAT.!

2—Tremendous Features—2

Jack Oakie—Dick Powell
Linda Darnell in
"IT HAPPENED TOMORROW"

Robert Livingston
Ruth Terry in
"GOOD NIGHT SWEETHEART"

Buy More Bonds Than Ever—

EVERY DAY IS
FREE MOVIE DAY

When you buy a War Bond in this theatre, Back the Fighting Fifth War Loan Drive!

—Back the Invasion

SUNDAY-MONDAY Two Days Only!

For Saturday Only
ICE CREAM
QUARTS (factory packed) .... 34c

FAIRMONT'S LUNCH

TONITE-SATURDAY—3 HITS!

"PASSAGE TO MARSEILLE"

Chapter 2 — "Coast Guard Serial"

ADULTS ALWAYS 25c

"FRONTIER OUTLAW"

2 BIG DAYS
SUN. MON.

CHILDREN UNDER 12—10c

2 BIG HITS

TARZAN'S NEW YORK ADVENTURE

with Johnny Weissmuller
Maureen O'Sullivan

Academy Award Winner
PAUL LUKAS

Address Unknown

with Carl Esmond • Peter Van Eyck
Mady Christians • Morris Carnovsky
and introducing K. T. STEVENS

CALL OF THE SOUTH SEAS

with JANET MARTIN
ALLAN LANE

and WILLIAM HENRY
ROY BARBOY
WALLY VERNON
ADELE MARA
DUNCAN RENALDO

Andy goes to college—and they make it co-ed! But when a trio of fair-haired charmers try to land him in leap-year—is he in trouble—and does he love it! The famed series hits a new high in fun!

with LEWIS STONE • MICKEY ROONEY • FAY HADEN • SARA HADEN
Bonita GRANVILLE • JEAN PORTER • KEYE LUKE
and HERBERT MARSHALL

NEXT TUES.-WED.-THURS.
Charlotte Bronte's Immortal Novel
"JANE EYRE"

WINE SPECIALS

SAN LUCAS WINE
Port-Sherry Wine, 20%
5th - - $1.19

LA ROSA
- Muscatel - 20%
5th - - $1.49

ABC
Port - 20%
5th - - $1.39

BARS SonS GRILLS

Come in and Meet
Wm. TOPOLOSKY, Mgr. ART PALM, Asst. Mgr.
DANCING EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

CIRCLE FRI.-SAT.

HIT NO. 1
"ADVENTURES OF A ROOKIE"
WALLY BROWN
ALAN CARNEY

HIT NO. 2
THE LONE RIDER
In
"AMBUSHED"
Action! Thrills!

SERIAL—TIGER WOMAN CHAPTER 5

SUNDAY—TWO BIG HITS!

TARZAN'S NEW YORK ADVENTURE

with Johnny Weissmuller
Maureen O'Sullivan

Academy Award Winner
PAUL LUKAS

Address Unknown

with Carl Esmond • Peter Van Eyck
Mady Christians • Morris Carnovsky
and introducing K. T. STEVENS

CALL OF THE SOUTH SEAS

with JANET MARTIN
ALLAN LANE

and WILLIAM HENRY
ROY BARBOY
WALLY VERNON
ADELE MARA
DUNCAN RENALDO

PLUS HIT NO. 2
JOHN WAYNE
CLAIRE TREVOR—WALTER PIDGEON
THE DARK COMMAND
Epic Western Of Pioneer Days

NEWS OF OUR MEN and WOMEN
IN UNIFORM

Nolo W. Gulick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Beckett, 92 Scioto street, Ashville, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant, it has been announced at the headquarters of the Ferrying Division in Cincinnati.

Sergeant Gulick is in the Finance Department at the Ferrying Division headquarters, which directs the delivery of planes and cargo and to all destinations and the evacuation of war wounded from coastal and debarkation points to inland hospitals.

Sergeant Gulick lived at 118 West Main street, Ashville, before entering the army. He attended Ashville high school and was an employee of the Huntington National Bank in Columbus.

At present, his wife is living at their Ashville home. He has a brother, Technician 4th grade Byron D. Gulick with the army in England.

Lloyd A. Nungester, F 2/c, a member of the Coast Guard Service, is spending a 10-day leave with his wife and their son, Lloyd, Jr., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nungester, of Third avenue. He has been in service for three years and will be located in Cleveland after his leave at home.

Sergeant Harold Sherman Denney wishes to thank his friends for his many birthday greetings. His new address is: Sgt. Harold S. Denney, ASN 35220766, APO 5384, c-o Postmaster, New York, N. Y. Mrs. Denney has arrived at her home in Circleville after spending the last month in California with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Timmons, Kingston, send this as the new address for their son, Kenneth: Kenneth Arthur Timmons, S 1/c, U. S. N. R., U. S. S. LCI (L) 606, c-o Fleet Postoffice, San Francisco, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. Vere Thomas, 406 East Franklin street, have received a letter from their son, telling them that he has arrived safely overseas. His address is: T/Sgt. Irvin R. Thomas, V. M. E.-443, 1st M. A. W. Fleet Postoffice, San Francisco, Cal.

Howard Orr has a new address: Sgt. Howard M. Orr, ASN 15125761, APO 16282-AQ-90, c-o Postmaster, New York, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kinser, 540 East Union street, have heard from their son, James Nelson, who is recovering from wounds in a hospital in England. In a letter dated June 21, he said that the doctor said his injuries were healing nicely. His APO number is 165, c-o Postmaster, New York City, N. Y. A complete address may be secured from his parents.

Mrs. Julius Wright of Williamsport route 1 asks that this new address be published: Staff Sergeant Julius Wright, ASN 15196896, 2nd Air Cargo Control Sq. (Sp) APO 5585, c-o Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

Vernal Rhoads, whose home is on Circleville route 1, has been transferred from Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., to 1584th S. U. Camp Atterbury, Ind.

July 22 will be the birthday anniversary of Private First Class Jack E. Goldsberry. His address is: ASN 36567736, 71 TCS, 434 TC Gr. APO 133, c-o Postmaster, N. Y.

Paul D. McCormick, a member of the 314th Depot Supply Sq., Kelly Field, San Antonio, Tex., will return to that station July 9 after passing a furlough at the home of Mrs. John McCormick, New Holland route 1.

Corporal Charles R. Maxwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Kingston, has completed a radio course at Dayton and is again at his former station, Pyote, Texas, where his address is: 35411709, Sec. A., AAF.

A/C Paul Walters arrived Thursday to spend a four-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Walters, of 111 East Water street. He has been stationed at Iowa City, Iowa, and will go to Minneapolis, Minn., at the close of his visit at home.

Private Robert Wolfe is spending a 21-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eymann Wolfe, 220 East Main street. He is stationed at San Luis Obispo, Cal., as a member of the 174th Engineers. This is his first furlough since he entered service October 2, 1943.

VICTORY'S COST

WAR TOLL
Pickaway county casualties in World War II:
Killed in action ..... 9
Killed or died in line of duty ..... 9
Prisoners of war ..... 22
Missing in action ..... 7
Wounded ..... 30
(These totals are unofficial, being based on reports compiled by The Herald on information received by next of kin from government sources.)

KILLED IN ACTION
Lyle H. Miner
Wilbur Adkins
Eugene Countryman
Milburn Devors, Jr.
Robert A. Mouser
Herschel V. Hinton
Earl Reichelderfer, Jr.
Mark Crawford
Raymond A. Ferguson

KILLED OR DIED IN LINE OF DUTY
Richard A. Hedges
Glenn Cook
John (Jack) Goodchild, Jr.
Sam Fetherolf
George Reese
Wade Fry
Guy Ankrom
Paul Steyers
Charles W. Hoover

PRISONERS OF WAR
Orville Shirley
Robert Livesay
Burnell Goodman
Russell Goodman
Ned Enoch
Russell Lavenshimer
Harold Welsh
Lyman Jones, Jr.
Lester Noggle
J. W. (Billy) Persinger
David C. Betts
Robert Carpenter
William H. Drake
Hoyt Timmons
Lawrence Wolford
Benjamin Johnson
Merle E. Garrett
Joseph Hickey
Steve Sturgell
Winfred P. Bidwell

MISSING IN ACTION
Junior Borror
Lt. Thomas W. Pearce
Charles M. Seal
Ralph Morrison
Marion Hunt
Earl White
George O'Day
Charles Carmean, Jr.
Charles M. Seall

WOUNDED
Wm. J. Schlarp
Ira Byers, Jr.
James F. Sonnera
Marvin Stout
Link Brown
Albert Neff
Francis Temple
Ansel Roof
Clarence Robison, Jr.
Bert Richey
William Schlarp
Fred A. Smith
George Curtain
Kenneth Wertman
John Hofflines
Melvin Thompson
John F. Stuckey
Woodrow Eccard
Charles Huffer
William T. Whiteside
Ted Corcoran
Shurley Brown
Ralph Carter
Robert Redman
Robert J. Stevenson
Laurence F. Neff
Harold E. Payne
Don Henry
Ned Barnes
James Nelson Kinser
Gilbert Dowden, Jr.

(This list is unofficial. Any person having knowledge of any other Pickaway county soldier who has been killed in action, was killed or died in line of duty, is a prisoner of war, is missing in action, or has been wounded is urged to notify The Herald so his name may be included in the Honor Roll list.)

Has Perfect Teeth

FAME SMILES on Lois Price, 18, of Jefferson, Iowa, because she has a perfect set of perfect teeth. Announcing her as a "discovery," a national journal for dentists credits her diet with much of the perfection. Formerly and appropriately a dental assistant in her home town, she is a waitress on the ss. North American. (International)

OSCAR S. HOWARD
WILL DISPOSES
OF CITY ESTATE

An estate estimated at $80,000, of which $50,000 is in realty, was disposed of in the will of Oscar S. Howard, probated Thursday.

The will directs that $100 be given Birdie Weaver for her services, and that his daughter, Marvene Howard, be made executrix-trustee and that she be given the building located at 156-158 West street in trust for the purpose of using the new income from this real estate for the maintenance, support, expenses of sickness and for the funeral expenses of his other daughter, Gladys Howard Try. He also directs that the sum of $5,000 be invested in Government bonds, to be placed in trust by the executrix-trustee, the income and principal to be used for the support and maintenance of Gladys Howard Try in event the income from the real estate be insufficient. In the event the income is still insufficient, the executrix-trustee is empowered to sell the real estate or encumber it and make any investment she deems necessary, with the approval of the probate court and use any part or all of the principal of the money resulting from the sale. Any successors to Marvene Howard as executrix-trustee are directed to carry out these provisions. At the death of Gladys Howard Try the trusteeship ends, and any money or income remaining in the fund is bequeathed to his daughter, Marvene.

In event Marvene predeceases her sister in death then at the death of Gladys H. Try, all that remains in the trust fund thus established shall be divided equally between the Methodist church, Berger hospital and his two nieces, Kathryn Drum and Ursula Wolf, both daughters of Leroy McMullen, a brother of his late wife.

The rest of the estate is bequeathed to his daughter Marvene with the confidence that Marvene

LOSS HEAVY AS FIRE DESTROYS
BARN ON FARM

Farm machinery including a hammermill, grinder, manure spreader, rubber tired wagon, and small tools with 125 bushels of corn, ten bushels of rye, ten bushels of soybeans, six tons of new baled hay and about four tons old hay were destroyed when the barn on the Ralph Allen farm, Royalton, was burned. Amanda volunteer firemen were called to the scene, but the fire had gained so much headway their efforts were directed toward saving other farm buildings.

RECEIVER NAMED
Fairfield County Sales company, one of Lancaster's two live-stock selling corporations went into the hands of a receiver, Wednesday. Fred B. Lewis, Rushville who gave $5,000 bond was named receiver in common pleas court, Fairfield county. William H. Graf is president and Lawrence Hyde, secretary-treasurer.

Edwin Markham, the poet, began his career by teaching in southern California, where his schoolroom was a "spreading live-oak tree, his seats of logs."

will care for her sister as long as she shall live.

In the event that Marvene shall refuse to act as executrix-trustee Durward D. Dowden was named to act and if he refuses, then the court and Ray Davis are empowered to select a trustee.

The will was dated August 16, 1943 and witnessed by F. E. Duncan and Frank Anderson.

GRASS FIRE
Circleville firefighters were called out Thursday afternoon at 1:45 when a grass fire in Walnut township on the farm of Charles Hayes, near Hedges Chapel burned straw and stubble over about twenty acres. At 3:00 the firemen went to the Owens school in Wayne township where a shed on the property burned. Leslie Garrett lives on the property.

BUY WAR BONDS

Red Ripe
Watermelons
Each 99c
Half 50c

Freestone
Peaches
Lb. 27c

A & P
Super Markets

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"The men overseas don't mince any words about the way they want to find this country when they come marching home... do they, Judge?"

"They certainly don't, Herb...and they shouldn't. They're doing a masterful job fighting over there to protect our rights and they have good license to expect us to protect theirs back here at home. One thing they're mighty clear on is their stand on prohibition."

"Their position on that subject was stated very emphatically in a poll taken recently among American service men in England by the British Institute of Public Opinion. When hundreds of men were asked point blank how they would vote on prohibition, 85% of them stated, in unmistakable terms, that they would vote against it. There's no doubt about it, Herb...the men overseas don't want any action taken on that subject while they're away."

"And they're 100% right, Judge, because I know how I felt when I came home after the last war—only to learn that we had been over there fighting for so impractical a thing as Prohibition."

This advertisement sponsored by Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc.

IT COSTS LESS TO PAINT THAN TO REPAIR

HANNA Paint

STANSBURY STOUT CORPORATION

161 Edison Ave.

Lunch time refreshment

DRINK Coca-Cola 5¢

SPREADING CASH to folks who need it—that's our full time job. Quick, confidential loan service. Money easy to get and easy to repay. Just give us a call for cash.

The City Loan and Savings Company

Clayt Chalfin, Mgr.
108 W. Main St. Phone 90

FIRST PRIZE!

This advertisement presents the prize winning editorial in a nationwide contest among high school and college publications, conducted by the Education Section of the War Finance Division in cooperation with the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, as part of the Treasury Department's Schools-War program. It was written by Barbara Brown, Olney High School, Philadelphia, for the OLNEY HIGHLIGHTS, and was selected from thousands of editorials which were submitted.

Memorial service for American Soldiers and Marines killed on Cape Gloucester, New Britain. Signal Corps Photo

Suppose there were no tomorrow—

Suppose there were no tomorrow? ... Think about it for just a minute ... No tomorrow for you, or your kid sister at home—or the brother who left for the Army yesterday. Did you ever think that we, who have had so few yesterdays, may have no tomorrows?

It has happened, you know. To Jack Feldman, and Bob Ernest—and fifteen others who sat in our classes just last term ...

They will have no tomorrow. They died before they ever had a try at living ... so that we might have our chance.

There are millions who were asked to give up more than a double feature at the Earle ... or a spiffy, new pair of pumps for next week's formal. A soda is a pretty insignificant sacrifice, when you think of—

The kids in Russia, who live on a few ounces of cereal a day. They've never seen an ice cream soda.

The Polish boys and girls, who would be in school right now, just as we are ... if there were any schools left.

The French youths who've never had a hamburger on a date—or any other time, for that matter. They are old, very old ... older than you and I will ever be ...

There are millions of them ... in Norway ... Holland ... Denmark ... Belgium ... They would stare in amazement if they could be here to see—

A jalopy painted bright yellow. "The Tin You Love to Touch" printed in big, green letters on the back.

A high school senior, uncomfortable in his first tuxedo ... calling for his date, looking nervous.

Millions of things that we take for granted ...

"Hey, Maestro! Play 'Stardust'!"

... There is such a feeling of permanency in our tight little world. We'll go to school with the gang, today ... and tomorrow ...

But, WHAT IF THERE WERE NO TOMORROW? There's only one way to be sure, you know—

Buy War Bonds ... That's a simple little phrase. It's the American way of saying what we mean in a few direct words. Buy War Bonds.

Yes—you and everybody must buy War Bonds. We've got to buy more and more, and more of 'em. Just get the idea into your head that your $18.75 might—just might end the war one-fifth of one second sooner. That maybe, in that one-fifth of a second, the boy next door could be on the receiving end of a bullet ... Then you'll know it's worth it!

We've got to keep on plugging, saving, convincing. Giving our pin money ...

Tell everybody—sell everybody! We can't take no for an answer ... tomorrow—and tomorrow—and tomorrow.

Let's ALL KEEP BACKING THE ATTACK!

This Advertisement Paid for by The Circleville Herald,

This advertisement prepared under the auspices of the U. S. Treasury Department and the War Advertising Council

The Circleville Herald

Consolidation of The Circleville Herald, Established 1883, and The Daily Union Herald, established 1894.

Published Evenings Except Sunday By
THE CIRCLEVILLE PUBLISHING COMPANY
210 North Court Street, Circleville

T. E. WILSON ..... Publisher

Member Ohio Newspaper Association, International News Service, Central Press Association, and the Ohio Select List.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
JOHN W. CULLEN COMPANY

230 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago; 630 Fifth Avenue, New York; 3044 N. Grand Blvd., Detroit.

SUBSCRIPTION
Pickaway County and Circleville trading territory. By carrier in Circleville, 20c per week. By mail per year, $4 in advance; Zones one and two, $3 per year in advance; beyond first and second postal zones, per year, $6.00 in advance.

Entered at Postoffice at Circleville, Ohio, as Second Class Matter.

LOST FRIENDS

WELL, good-by Argentina—take care of yourself. We know you would, anyway, according to your lights—which are rather dim just now. We probably will not be seeing you for some time, busy as we are at present with trying to keep the Hitler gang away from this hemisphere and give you and your neighbors down there a chance. Not that you seem to care much about freedom, at a time when it's the most precious thing on earth. But if you change your mind, we will be waiting to greet the prodigal son.

It is an odd thing, Argie, that you down at the bottom of the world, who used to be our friend, and Finland up at the top, with whom we formerly got along so well, should both walk out on us. But there is no accounting for ideological tastes, and we will be waiting and watching for you two brethren when you come back home, as you will sooner or later. For both of you have a streak of liberty in your systems, and that is something which, once enjoyed, is never altogether lost.

We realize, too, that you are not free to choose your friends just now. That is what comes from getting into bad company.

FOREIGN GRAVES

AMERICANS are sentimental fellows who like to cover up their sentiment, as if they were ashamed of it. But often it just breaks out awkwardly in spite of them. There was the grave-digger, for example, that an American correspondent, Roeliff Loveland, ran across in France the other day. He was a young soldier standing beside a landing strip where there was a faded bouquet of blue and yellow field flowers, with handfuls of grass to hold them up. The correspondent asked who put them there.

The soldier looked down at the dusty ground and kicked it with his toe, ill at ease. "It was the guys that dug the graves, I reckon," he said. "I'd sort of like to know for sure," insisted the correspondent.

"Yeah, it was the guys that dug the graves," the soldier repeated. And when he was pressed further, he admitted: "I helped dig 'em and I helped get flowers. They ain't too good, but they was all we could get. We sort of figured—well, hell, I gotta get a-going."

And that was a poem, in its way.

THE BEST EATING

EATING in the kitchen is an old American custom. It may not, however, be a good one if we want the food to be at its best. H. D. Renner, an Englishman, who has been studying the science of eating, says: "A dish smells differently in the kitchen and in the dining-room. The habit of having the dining-room separate from the kitchen can therefore be seen to be well grounded."

The trouble apparently is that other kitchen smells may unconsciously affect the taste of the food served.

Smoking at mealtime is not recommended either by Mr. Renner. His own experi-

Inside WASHINGTON

Expect Navy to Reach
Quota by End of Month

Only Replacements May Be Required Hereafter

Special to Central Press

WASHINGTON—Some Washington observers anticipate that selective service calls will be trimmed this month when the Navy is scheduled to reach its planned top strength of over 3,000,000 men.

It also is believed the fact that casualties in the European invasion were lower than expected will be reflected in reductions in the July draft calls.

The Army reached its peak last April and the majority of inductions since then have been for the Navy. When both branches reach their peak, only replacements will be required.

THE ARMY CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE has revealed a terrifying list of new weapons to remind the Axis that the United States is fully prepared for this type of warfare, particularly if the enemy tries any funny business with gas.

One new chemical weapon of the non-gas variety is a two-foot gasoline bomb which would spread a blazing mass of jelly over anything it hit and would be particularly effective in Japan's tinder-like cities.

THE UNITED STATES PROBABLY WILL PRESS Germany and Japan after the war for the cost of personal belongings, houses

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

DISASTROUS NAZI RAID

WASHINGTON—It is no longer a secret that the United States now has two bases in Russia for shuttle-bombing. One base is located in Northern Russia for the use of U. S. planes attacking Germany from England. The other base is in Southern Russia for use of U. S. planes coming from Italy.

Not known, however, is the fact that the northern base recently suffered a serious Nazi bombing raid which knocked out a considerable number of Flying Fortresses.

What happened was that the U. S. bombers had completed a successful raid over Germany, during which they encountered little fighter opposition, and had arrived safely at the Russian shuttle-bombing base. Tired, the crews lined up their planes for the night and went to sleep in adjacent barracks.

But because the base is somewhat cramped, the planes were lined up closer to each other than they should have been.

At 2 a. m., the Nazis, who apparently had trailed the U. S. planes but had not attacked, suddenly staged a night raid. Catching the base relatively unguarded, they made mince-meat of the neatly lined-up Flying Fortresses.

Few of the bomber crews were killed, due to the fact that they were asleep in their barracks.

NOTE—Senator Langer of North Dakota has inquired of Secretary Stimson as to what radar and fighter plane protection we have worked out with the Russians for the safety of these new shuttle-bombing bases. He wants to know whether this disaster was the fault of U. S. officers or due to poor cooperation.

JESSE JONES AND FDR

White House intimates relate an interesting phase of the recent conversation between the President and dynamic Governor Ellis Arnall of Georgia regarding the Southern revolt against Roosevelt.

Governor Arnall was telling the President about certain angles of the Southern revolt, which he said didn't exist in Georgia, but did seem to be serious in Texas, where it was led by Jesse Jones' forces. Then he added:

"Why don't you put the squeeze on that fellow Jones, Mr. President?"

"You can't squeeze Jesse Jones," the President replied. "He's impervious. Do you know what he had the nerve to come in and tell me? That he didn't know anything about the Texas revolt until he read it in the newspapers!"

"Why," the President added, "you can't do anything down there in Texas without Jesse Jones being in on it."

GOP FENCE-STRADDLING

Progressive Republicans who have been studying the party platform express private disappointment at some of the evasions. These are not apparent on the surface but, reading the GOP platform carefully, it is obvious that some clever legal footwork went on behind the scenes in Chicago.

One dodge was in regard to an anti-lynching bill. The Republican platform failed to come out for a Federal anti-lynching bill. A Federal bill is the crux of the whole question. Not even the Southern states would have any objection to a plat-ments showed that, immediately after smoking, the taste of chocolate was reduced to half its strength. So if the food is to be enjoyed to the utmost, perhaps the diner should cut out the mealtime cigaret.

(Continued on Page Eight)

Eating is such an interesting and important job that it deserves the fullest attention and the best possible surroundings.

LAFF-A-DAY

DIET AND HEALTH

Summer Danger from Dogs

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M.D.

WAR AFFECTS many aspects of life indirectly and apparently remotely. Judging from the number of dogs that almost hourly go past my windows either in packs or in pairs or singly, nearly always rushing excitedly and apparently aimlessly along the street, I can understand that the routine of life of man's best friend has been seriously upset.

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only, and then only through his column.

Meat rationing hit him, owners turn their pets loose to forage for the food they can't spare themselves and the hungry dog on the loose goes after rabbits, squirrels, chipmunks, and, besides, they associate too much with each other. All this makes an ideal situation for the development of rabies, or hydrophobia, and is, of course, a direct danger to man, especially in the summer months.

I have a letter from a Pennsylvania town which prompted me to call attention to the matter.

"Since a clean up of stray dogs is going on, and several dogs have shown rabies, I suggest a discussion of the proper treatment in suspected cases. Doctors do not seem to be alert to the danger.

Two Fatal Cases

"My own little boy died suddenly last fall. He was bitten by a neighbor's St. Bernard through the lip. This was in June and the doctor said anti-rabic treatment was not necessary. The boy became suddenly sick in November with convulsions and fever and died 24 hours later. I have since heard of another case, a lady who died very suddenly and the coroner said it was the result of a dog bite on the lip received six months before."

Rabies affects all mammals and cases have been reported from the bite of skunks, wolves, cats and squirrels, but the responsibility of the spread of the disease to man rests mainly on dogs. Dogs are very susceptible to infection, man very slightly susceptible. If 10 humans are bitten by a proved mad dog, and none of them receive immunizing treatments, only one, according to statistics, will on the average develop hydrophobia.

The virus enters through the bite or any break in the skin (there are cases where the infection occurred in a cut on the hand when the owner petted a sick dog and the dog licked the cut on the hand). It travels along the nerve paths to the brain. That is why it usually takes so long to produce symptoms. If it travelled by blood vessels the incubation period would be shorter.

Types of Rabies

In the dog the dumb form of rabies occurs in only about 20% of cases. And these are often the more dangerous kind because the dog is not spotted as a mad dog and may be approached and handled when suddenly it will snap and the damage is done. The "furious" form in which the dog is excited and restless and finally becomes very agitated and goes on a snapping and biting spree occurs in 80% of instances. Frequently, however, the two forms merge.

The practical lessons are that any dog that changes disposition suddenly in hot weather is potentially dangerous. If it bites a human it should be chained up until it dies or is proved non-rabid. The diagnosis of rabies can be made by examining the dog's brain, but the diagnosis is not always easy even by experts and it is better to let the disease run its course so that the signs will be most evident.

Any bite by an animal proved rabid should call for Pasteur inoculations. While gossipy rumors will assert that the serum is dangerous there is no proof of this and the dangers of letting the case drift are greater. The first thing to be done with any dog bite is to sterilize or cauterize the wound with alcohol or nitric acid to attempt to kill the virus at the source.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

L. M.:—How does one test the urine for sugar? My mother has diabetes and it is most inconvenient to go to a doctor from where I live.

Answer: All diabetics, or a near relative, should learn how to test the urine for sugar at home. It is very simple. Any drugstore will supply you with Benedict's solution, a test tube, an alcohol lamp and a medicine dropper. Put a teaspoonful of Benedict's solution in the test tube, hold it over the flame of the lamp until it comes to a boil, then drop a few drops of urine into it and boil again. If sugar is present it will cause a green, yellow or red cloudy deposit. If none is present the solution will remain blue.

Looking Back in Pickaway County

FIVE YEARS AGO

Miss Martha Louise Seyfert, of Dillsboro, Ind., was a guest of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert T. Kelsey, East Mound street.

The playground project, being sponsored by the Circleville lodge of Elks, was given a boost when Chamber of Commerce directors voted unanimously to support the program with a gift of $500.

Norbert L. Cochran, of Fernandina, Fla., arrived to take over the management of the Circleville plant of the Container Corporation.

10 YEARS AGO

Ashville council at its weekly meeting set machinery in motion to place the sanitary sewer bonds issue on the ballot at the regular August primary.

The city's steam roller was slightly damaged when it careened over an embankment at the intersection of Island road and Florence Chapel pike, near the red river bridge.

It was reported that 123 and two-fifths acres of wheat on the Nelson Baker farm averaged 29 bushels to the acre.

25 YEARS AGO

John S. Neff, of Jackson township, sold a bunch of pigs, that brought him over $1,000, at $19.50 a hundred. Two older hogs, weigh-

"CALAMITY TOWN" by ELLERY QUEEN

©1943 by LITTLE, BROWN & CO., DISTRIBUTED BY KING FEATURES SYNDICATE

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO

"Think of this: Since Jim couldn't be sure Rosemary would drink that poisoned cocktail, who could be sure?" asked Ellery.

Carter Bradford and Patricia Wright were pressing against the edge of the table, still, rigid, not breathing.

Mr. Queen shrugged. "And instantly—it was unbelievable, and it was sickening, and it was the only possible truth:

"Just one other person had opportunity to poison that cocktail, for just one other person handled it before it reached Rosemary!"

"Just one other person had motive to kill Rosemary and could have utilized the rat poison for murder which Jim had bought for mice-exterminating purposes... perhaps at someone else's suggestion? Remember he went back to Myron Garback's pharmacy a second time for another tin, telling Garback he had 'misaid' the first tin? How do you suppose that first tin came to be 'misaid'? With what we now know, isn't it evident that it wasn't misaid at all, but was stolen and stored away by the only other person in Jim's house with motive to kill Rosemary?"

Mr. Queen glanced at Patricia Wright and once closed his eyes, as if they pained him. Then he said through his teeth: "That person could only have been the one who actually handed Rosemary the cocktail on New Year's Eve."

Pat was frozen.

"I'm sorry," said Ellery, opening his eyes. "But it's logically, terribly sorry. But it's as logical as death itself. And to give you two a chance, I had to tell you both."

Pat said faintly: "Not Nora. Oh, not Nora!"

Then she collapsed. They removed her to a couch in a rear room. Carter stood over her awkwardly. Then he sat down and took her hand. Ellery saw her tanned fingers go white with pressure. He turned away and strolled over to the other side of the room to examine a poster. There was no sound at all, anywhere. Until he heard Pat murmur: "Ellery."

Queen turned around. She was sitting up on the couch again, both her hands in Carter Bradford's. Ellery guessed that in those few seconds of silence a great battle had been fought, and won. He drew a chair over to the couch and sat down facing them.

"Tell me the rest," said Pat steadily, her eyes on his. "Go on, Ellery. Tell me the rest."

"It doesn't make any difference, Patty darling," murmured Carter. "Oh, you know that. You know it."

"I know it, Cart."

"Whatever it was, darling—Nora was sick. I guess she was always a neurotic, always close to the borderline."

"Yes, Cart. Tell me the rest, Ellery."

"Pat, do you remember telling me about dropping in to Nora's a few days after Rosemary arrived, in early November, and finding Nora 'trapped in the serving pantry'?"

"You mean when Nora overheard Jim and Rosemary having an argument?"

"Yes. You said you came in at the tail end and didn't hear anything of consequence. And that Nora wouldn't tell you what she'd overheard. You said Nora had the same kind of look on her face as that day when those three letters tumbled out of the toxicology book."

"Yes..." said Pat.

"That must have been the turning point, Pat. That must have been the time when Nora learned the grim truth—by pure accident; she learned from the lips of Jim and Rosemary themselves that Rosemary wasn't his sister but his wife, that she herself was not legally married."

Ellery examined his hands. "It... unbalanced Nora. In a twinkling her whole world came tumbling down, and her moral sense and mental health with it. She faced a humiliation too sickening to be faced. And Nora was emotionally weakened by the strain of the years between Jim's sudden desertion and her marriage to him... Nora slipped over the line."

"Over the line," whispered Pat. "She planned to take revenge on the two people who, as her disturbed mind now saw it, had shamed her and ruined her life. She planned to kill Jim's first wife, the hated woman who called herself Rosemary. She planned to have Jim pay for the crime by using the very tools he'd manufactured for a similar purpose years before and which were now, as if by an act of providence, thrust into her hand. She must have worked it out slowly. But work it out she did."

Pat closed her eyes, and Carter kissed her hand.

"Knowing that we knew about the letters—you and I, Pat—Nora deliberately carried out the pattern of the three letters. She swallowed a small dose of arsenic on Thanksgiving Day so that it would seem to us Jim was following his schedule. And recall what she did immediately after showing symptoms of arsenic poisoning at the dinner table? She ran upstairs and gulped great quantities of milk of magnesia, an emergency antidote for arsenic poisoning."

"Patty, must I go on? Let Carter take you home—"

"I want the whole thing," said Pat. "Now!"

Ellery went on in a low tone. "Recall them! If Nora was as concerned over Jim's safety as she pretended, would she have left those three incriminating letters in her hatbox? Wouldn't any wife who felt as she claimed to feel about Jim have burned those letters instantly? But no—Nora saved them... Of course. She knew they would turn out to be evidence against Jim when he was arrested, and she made sure they survived to be used against him. As a matter of cold fact, how did Dakin eventually find them?"

"Nora... Nora called our attention to them," said Carter feebly. "When she had hysterics and mentioned the letters, which we didn't even know about—"

"Mentioned?" cried Ellery. "Hysterics? My dear Bradford, that was acting! She pretended to be hysterical, she pretended that I had already told you about the letters! In saying so, she established the existence of the letters for your benefit."

"Yes. You said you came in at the tail end and didn't hear anything of consequence. And that Nora wouldn't tell you what she'd overheard. You said Nora had the same kind of look on her face as that day when those three letters tumbled out of the toxicology book."

"Yes..." said Pat.

"That must have been the turning point, Pat. That must have been the time when Nora learned the grim truth—by pure accident; she learned from the lips of Jim and Rosemary themselves that Rosemary wasn't his sister but his wife, that she herself was not legally married."

Ellery examined his hands. "It... unbalanced Nora. In a twinkling her whole world came tumbling down, and her moral sense and mental health with it. She faced a humiliation too sickening to be faced. And Nora was emotionally weakened by the strain of the years between Jim's sudden desertion and her marriage to him... Nora slipped over the line."

"Over the line," whispered Pat. "She planned to take revenge on the two people who, as her disturbed mind now saw it, had shamed her and ruined her life. She planned to kill Jim's first wife, the hated woman who called herself Rosemary. She planned to have Jim pay for the crime by using the very tools he'd manufactured for a similar purpose years before and which were now, as if by an act of providence, thrust into her hand. She must have worked it out slowly. But work it out she did."

Pat closed her eyes, and Carter kissed her hand.

"Knowing that we knew about the letters—you and I, Pat—Nora deliberately carried out the pattern of the three letters. She swallowed a small dose of arsenic on Thanksgiving Day so that it would seem to us Jim was following his schedule. And recall what she did immediately after showing symptoms of arsenic poisoning at the dinner table? She ran upstairs and gulped great quantities of milk of magnesia, an emergency antidote for arsenic poisoning."

"Patty, must I go on? Let Carter take you home—"

"I want the whole thing," said Pat. "Now!"

Ellery went on in a low tone. "Recall them! If Nora was as concerned over Jim's safety as she pretended, would she have left those three incriminating letters in her hatbox? Wouldn't any wife who felt as she claimed to feel about Jim have burned those letters instantly? But no—Nora saved them... Of course. She knew they would turn out to be evidence against Jim when he was arrested, and she made sure they survived to be used against him. As a matter of cold fact, how did Dakin eventually find them?"

"Nora... Nora called our attention to them," said Carter feebly. "When she had hysterics and mentioned the letters, which we didn't even know about—"

"Mentioned?" cried Ellery. "Hysterics? My dear Bradford, that was acting! She pretended to be hysterical, she pretended that I had already told you about the letters! In saying so, she established the existence of the letters for your benefit."

"Yes. You said you came in at the tail end and didn't hear anything of consequence. And that Nora wouldn't tell you what she'd overheard. You said Nora had the same kind of look on her face as that day when those three letters tumbled out of the toxicology book."

"Yes..." said Pat.

"That must have been the turning point, Pat. That must have been the time when Nora learned the grim truth—by pure accident; she learned from the lips of Jim and Rosemary themselves that Rosemary wasn't his sister but his wife, that she herself was not legally married."

Ellery examined his hands. "It... unbalanced Nora. In a twinkling her whole world came tumbling down, and her moral sense and mental health with it. She faced a humiliation too sickening to be faced. And Nora was emotionally weakened by the strain of the years between Jim's sudden desertion and her marriage to him... Nora slipped over the line."

"Over the line," whispered Pat. "She planned to take revenge on the two people who, as her disturbed mind now saw it, had shamed her and ruined her life. She planned to kill Jim's first wife, the hated woman who called herself Rosemary. She planned to have Jim pay for the crime by using the very tools he'd manufactured for a similar purpose years before and which were now, as if by an act of providence, thrust into her hand. She must have worked it out slowly. But work it out she did."

Pat closed her eyes, and Carter kissed her hand.

"Knowing that we knew about the letters—you and I, Pat—Nora deliberately carried out the pattern of the three letters. She swallowed a small dose of arsenic on Thanksgiving Day so that it would seem to us Jim was following his schedule. And recall what she did immediately after showing symptoms of arsenic poisoning at the dinner table? She ran upstairs and gulped great quantities of milk of magnesia, an emergency antidote for arsenic poisoning."

"Patty, must I go on? Let Carter take you home—"

"I want the whole thing," said Pat. "Now!"

Ellery went on in a low tone. "Recall them! If Nora was as concerned over Jim's safety as she pretended, would she have left those three incriminating letters in her hatbox? Wouldn't any wife who felt as she claimed to feel about Jim have burned those letters instantly? But no—Nora saved them... Of course. She knew they would turn out to be evidence against Jim when he was arrested, and she made sure they survived to be used against him. As a matter of cold fact, how did Dakin eventually find them?"

"Nora... Nora called our attention to them," said Carter feebly. "When she had hysterics and mentioned the letters, which we didn't even know about—"

"Mentioned?" cried Ellery. "Hysterics? My dear Bradford, that was acting! She pretended to be hysterical, she pretended that I had already told you about the letters! In saying so, she established the existence of the letters for your benefit."

"Yes. You said you came in at the tail end and didn't hear anything

"What else?" urged Pat in a shaky voice.

"Just one thing, Pat. Jim was the only one who knew the truth, although Roberta Roberts may have guessed it. Jim knew he hadn't poisoned the cocktail, so he must have known only Nora could have."

"Yet Jim kept quiet. Do you see why I said before that Jim had a reason for martyrizing himself? It was his penance, his self-imposed punishment. For Jim felt himself to have been completely responsible for the tragedy in Nora's life—indeed, for driving her to murder."

Pat sank back on the couch to rest her head against the wall. Carter inched at the expression on her face. So he said, as if somehow it softened the blow and alleviated the pain: "But Queen, isn't it possible that Nora and Jim together, as accomplices?"

Ellery replied rapidly: "If they'd been accomplices, working together to rid themselves of Rosemary, would they have deliberately planned the crime in such a way that Jim, one of the accomplices, would turn out to be the only possible criminal?"

"After a long period of complete quiet, Pat turned to look at Carter; and, oddly, she was smiling. But it was the wispiest, lightest ghost of a smile."

"No," said Carter. "Don't say it. I won't hear it."

"But Cart, you don't know what I was going to say—"

"I do! And it's an insult!"

"Here—" began Mr. Queen. "If you think," snarled Cart, "that I would drag a story like this out for the edification of the Emmy DuPrés of Wrightsville, then you're not the kind of woman I want to marry, Pat!"

"I couldn't marry you, Cart," murmured Pat in a stifled voice. "Not with Nora—not with my own sister—"

"She wasn't responsible! She was sick! Look, Pat—" Cart pulled her off the sofa and held her to him tightly. "Oh, darling, it isn't Nora, it isn't Jim, it isn't your father or really thinking of... It's the baby! We're going to be married, and we're going to bury this case, adopt little Nora and make the whole thing sound like some impossible business out of a book—that's what we're going to do! Understand?"

"Yes, Cart," whispered Pat, as she closed her eyes and laid her cheek against his shoulder.

When Mr. Ellery Queen strolled out of the back room he was smiling, a little sadly. He slipped a ten-dollar bill down on the bar before Gus Olsen and said: "See what the folks in the back room will have, and keep the change. Good-bye, Gus. I've got to catch the train for New York."

Gus stared at the bill. "I ain't dreaming, am I? You ain't Santa Claus?"

—: Social Happenings - Personals - News of Interest to Women :—:

Society for Christian Service Holds Session

Readings Given, Duet Among Features

An excellent group attended the meeting of Hedges Chapel Woman's Society for Christian Service Thursday at the church. Mrs. Anna Hedges, president, conducted the opening business hour. Mrs. Clarence Jones, who was in charge of the devotional service, presented Mrs. Della Hay, Mrs. Homer Quillen, Mrs. Laura Pontius, Mrs. Hays Dill, Mrs. Bernice Brinker and Mrs. C. D. Bennett in readings, and Mrs. Charles Dresbach and Mrs. Homer Reber in a vocal duet. Mrs. Chester Noecker arranged the program, using as her topic, "Medical Work in Africa." Mrs. Ray Plum and Mrs. Russell Hedges presented readings on this subject. Mary Ann Noecker sang one solo with Mrs. Joseph Peters as her piano accompanist. Mrs. Peters concluded the program with a piano solo. Seasonal refreshments were served by Miss Florence Brown, Mrs. Pearl Hedges, Mrs. Mattie Adkins, Mrs. Olive Quillen and Mrs. Dora Trone.

Morris Chapel Aid society met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Russell England, Pickaway township, with a small group in attendance. Mrs. Neil Morris, vice president, conducted the meeting in the absence of Mrs. Roy Strawser, new president. Mrs. F. E. Dunn offered prayer and read the Scripture lesson from Psalm 91. It was decided to have Dollar Day at the August session. The program included readings by Mrs. England, who read "The Flag Is Over the Plow"; Mrs. V. D. Kerns, "Sometimes"; Mrs. Patrick Roth, "On the Stars and Stripes"; Mrs. Roy England offered prayer; vocal duet, Mrs. Carl Anderson and Mrs. Floyd Arledge. A dessert course was served at the close of the social hour.

Mrs. Snodgrass Honored Mrs. Leonard Snodgrass, who with her husband and son will remove soon to their new home in Portsmouth, was honored Thursday at a handkerchief shower at the home of Mrs. Ben Gordon, Northridge road. Members of Mrs. Gordon's bridge club were entertained at the affair. After several rounds of contract bridge, Mrs. Snodgrass and Mrs. E. L. Montgomery won prizes for scores. Refreshments were served at the small tables.

Others present were: Mrs. John Magill, Mrs. Bert Shimp, Mrs. Don Mason, Mrs. George E. Gerhardt and Mrs. Charles Goeller.

Bridge Club Meets Mrs. Forrest Bottenfield, of Washington, C. H., was hostess to members of her bridge club at her home Thursday afternoon. Members playing included Mrs. George McGhee, Mrs. George Betts, Mrs. Charles Drake, Mrs. Paul Peck, Mrs. Wendell Evans, Mrs. Van Meter Hulse and Mrs. Ulin McGhee, of the Atlanta community. Mrs. Frank Thatcher and Mrs. Elmer Hagley of Washington, C. H., were guests at the meeting. Mrs. Hagley won high prize in the games; Mrs. Peck, traveling, and Mrs. Thatcher, low. Dainty refreshments were served following the games.

Birthday Observed Mr. and Mrs. William J. Robinson, of East Main street, entertained Tuesday in honor of the eighteenth birthday anniversary of their son, Charles William, a picnic being enjoyed on the lawn of their home.

Present for the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Weaver, Lew Burkheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tuttle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver and family, of Columbus. The honor guest, whose birthday was July 5, registered for service with the armed forces on that day.

U. B. Missionary Society An interesting meeting of the Women's Missionary society of the United Brethren church Thursday at the home of Mrs. Paul Dawson, East Franklin street, opened with a short business hour in charge of Miss Gladys Noggle, president. It was decided to have the August session at Ted Lewis Recreation park, and to have a picnic supper preceding the meeting. Mrs. Ralph Long was in charge of the program on the theme, "For the Facing of This Hour." Mrs. James Trimmer led the group in the "Salute to the Flag" and read to relieve distress of MONTHLY Female Weakness (Also Fine Stomachic Tonic) Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound is famous to relieve periodic pain and accompanying nervous, weak, tired-out feelings—all due to functional monthly disturbances. Made especially for women—helps nature! Follow label directions. LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND

SOCIAL CALENDAR

SUNDAY GLEANERS' CLASS PICNIC, Logan Elm park, Sunday at noon. CHRIST LUTHERAN PICNIC, home Harry Barthelmas, Wayne township, Sunday at noon. PYTHIAN SISTERS PICNIC, home Mrs. Mae Groce, East Franklin street, Sunday at 7:30 p. m. MONDAY VON BORA SOCIETY, TRINITY Lutheran parish house, Monday at 8 p. m. TUESDAY LOYAL DAUGHTERS' CLASS, U. B. community house, Tuesday at 8 p. m. WEDNESDAY MRS. MARION'S CLASS PICNIC, Ted Lewis Recreation park, Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. UNION GUILD, HOME MRS. Lee Winks, near Ashville, Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The "Star-Spangled Banner", which was sung in unison with Miss Polly Jane Kerns at the piano. The devotionals and leader's talk were based on "World Peace and Love." Mrs. Carroll Morgan read the poem, "My Country is the World"; a leaflet, "Words of World Citizens"; Miss Noggle; prayer period; symposium, "We Are the World Missionaries"; Mrs. John Kerns, Mrs. Clara Stevenson, and Mrs. Frank Hawkes. Refreshments were served at the close of a flag contest.

Whisper Ladies' Aid The Whisper Ladies' Aid society met in regular session at the home of Mrs. Lydia Imler with her daughters, Mrs. Kate Kerns and Mrs. Lem Rice, assisting. The meeting opened with group singing. Betty Joe Minshall having charge of the devotionals. She read for her Scripture lesson, Psalm 27, and closed the period with the Lord's Prayer in unison. The program was in charge of Mrs. Pauline Patrick, an interesting contest being conducted. Miss Minshall entertained the group with two readings. The hostesses served a dessert course to 26 members and visitors at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Marion's Class Mrs. Marion's Sunday School class of the Methodist church will have its annual picnic for members and families at Ted Lewis Recreation park Wednesday, July 12, at 6:30 p. m. Members are requested to take a covered dish, their own sandwiches, drink and table service. Ice cream will be served by the class. Members of the committee in charge are: Mrs. John Magill, Mrs. Barton Deming, Miss Peggy Parks and Miss Frances Hill.

Union Guild Union Guild will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Lee Winks, near Ashville. Mrs. Walter Metzger will be assisting hostess.

Loyal Daughters' Class Loyal Daughters' class of the United Brethren church will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m., at the community house. Mrs. James Cook, Mrs. Chester Starkey and Mrs. E. L. Pritchard will be members of the hospitality committee.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Elliott, 501 East Franklin street, have returned home after spending several days with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green, of Columbus.

Ned Steeley, of Newark, and his sister, Mrs. Franklin O'Bannon, and daughter, Marilyn Lee, of Chicago, Ill., have returned to Newark

Public Warning!

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

Warlike living conditions may be the cause of spreading Pin-Worm infection. Scientific reports in many communities have shown at least one-third of the examined children and grown-ups to be victims of Pin-Worms—often without knowing what was wrong!

New Discovery Hailed By Doctors After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a new and highly effective way to deal with this stubborn pest has recently been discovered. This scientific discovery, hailed by medical authorities, is a remarkable drug (gentian violet). It is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicine. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to destroy the creatures. So don't take chances with Pin-Worms. At the first warning sign, ask your druggist for P-W, and follow the directions. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

She's Top Model

AFTER SIX MONTHS as a model, blond and lovely Doris Merrick, now a Hollywood movie starlet, comes up with the title, "Queen of Chicago models." Miss Merrick won the title through her ability to register best the violent emotions necessary for horror story magazines and because she models shorts and play suits so attractively. (International) after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sampson, of East Franklin street, Mrs. O'Bannon and daughter are visiting in Newark enroute to New York City to make their home with Lieutenant O'Bannon of the U. S. Navy, who has been transferred there from Chicago.

Mrs. Essie W. Schlear of the O. S. S. O. Home of Xenia, is spending her vacation with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Kibler, of Watt street.

Mrs. Eldon Hatfield and Mrs. B. F. Porter, of Five Points, were Thursday shopping visitors in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sohn, of Pickaway township, were Circleville visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heffner of near Williamsport were Thursday business visitors in Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Landis, Pickaway township, were Circleville business visitors Thursday.

Mrs. John Wolford, of Pickaway township, was a Thursday shopping visitor in Circleville.

Mrs. Florence Rector Jones, East Mound street, is visiting in the East with Miss Bertha Allen, of Southport, Conn.

Saltcreek Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strous and sons, Franklin and Carl, spent Sunday in Chillicothe the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Hilliard and Mrs. Rosa McNeal.

Mr. and Mrs. Burl Wiggins, of this valley moved to Circleville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Pontius, son Jerry, Mr. and Mrs. Crib Black of Circleville were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Mowery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reichelderfer were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bowsher.

The Methodist Aid society of Tarlton entertained a number of Aid Societies Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Edna Luckhart and Mrs. Jane Cottrill, of Colerain, were six o'clock dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Luckhart and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strous and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Judy.

DR. JACK BRAHMS

Optometric Eye Specialist

110 1/2 W. MAIN ST. (Over Hamilton's Store)

Main Office 98 N. High St. Columbus, O.

• Eyes Examined • Prescriptions Filled • Glasses Repaired

Office Hours Tues. - Thurs. - Sat. Evenings 7 to 10 p. m.

Taking Possession of Canaan

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 9 is Joshua 13, 14, Judges 1:19-21, 27, 28, the Golden Text being Joshua 14:9, "Thou hast wholly followed Jehovah.")

WE START today's lesson with a picture of Joshua, now an old man, "stricken in years," as the Bible tells us.

The Lord spoke to him, saying that He saw that Joshua was old, and there was still much land that had been promised to the children of Israel that was still not in their possession. Some of it had been conquered, but it had not passed out of the hands of its possessors into those of the Israelites. The Lord commanded Joshua to "divide thou it by lot unto the Israelites for an inheritance" to the nine tribes and the half tribe of Manasseh.

Our lesson tells minutely of the land still not divided, and just what tribes were to get the various parts, including cities and pastureland. While the land was to be divided by lot under Joshua and Eleazar, the priest, yet, says our commentator, "the people themselves were to give the inheritances larger or smaller in proportion to the population of the several tribes." We have no precise information concerning just how the lots were cast in the account given in our lesson, but there is a statement elsewhere that tells us that there were two urns, in one of which were the names of the nine tribes and one half tribe, the other with the names of 10 districts, and that one of these was drawn alternately.

Caleb Is Lesson's Hero The real hero of today's lesson is Caleb, "a prince of the tribe of Judah," and first mentioned in the list of princes who were sent to search the land of Canaan in the second year of the Exodus. He and Joshua were the only ones to encourage the people of Israel to go up and take possession of the land.

Caleb came to Joshua and asked for certain land for his people. "Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea to spy out the land; and I brought him word again as it was in mine heart. Nevertheless my brethren that went up with me made the heart of the people melt: but I wholly followed the Lord my God." Moses had promised, said Caleb, that "the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance, and thy children's forever, because thou hast wholly followed the Lord thy God."

Now Caleb was 85, and "as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me," therefore he asked for Hebron, and it was given him. "And the land had rest from war" which had been almost continuous since the children of Israel had sighted the Promised Land.

The picture of these two old men, Joshua and Caleb, who had seen the land that was promised them as theirs and pronounced it good, is very touching. Caleb, at 85, was strong and enterprising, asking for a land that was desirable but difficult to conquer, and knowing he would succeed because of his faith in the God whom he had followed unwaveringly.

God With Judah "And the Lord was with Judah, and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron."

"And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Moses said; and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak."

Caleb, the faithful, conquered his enemies wholly, but Judah could not drive him out of the valleys "because they had chariots of iron"—probably these were ordinary war chariots such as are described in the Iliad. It is probable if Judah had been more courageous, with faith that the Lord was with him, he could have conquered even this handicap.

The children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites, and they dwelt with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem "unto this day."

Neither did Manasseh drive out the inhabitants of Bethshean and the other towns thereof, "but the Canaanites would dwell in that land."

"And it came to pass, when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out." The influence of the Canaanites was unfortunate, leading at last to turmoil, increasing corruption and ultimate idolatry.

CHURCH NOTICES

Williamsport Methodist Rev. R. S. Meyer, pastor Church school, 9:30 a. m.; G. P. Hunsicker, superintendent; worship, 10:30 a. m.

Williamsport Christian Rev. W. E. Ewing, pastor Sunday school, 10 a. m.; James Leslie, superintendent; services Sunday evening.

Stoutsville Lutheran Rev. H. B. Drum, pastor Trinity Lutheran, Stoutsville: worship service, 9:15; Sunday school, 10:15. St. Jacob's Lutheran, Tarlton: Sunday school, 9:30; worship service, 10:30.

Pickaway U. B. Charge Rev. F. E. Dunn, pastor Pontius: Preaching 9:30 a. m.; Sunday school 10:30 a. m.; Prayer meeting Wednesday 8:30 p. m.; official board session to follow.

Ringgold: Sunday school 10:00 a. m.; preaching 11:00 a. m. Christian Endeavor 7:30 p. m. Prayer and praise service Wednesday 8:30 p. m.

Morris: Sunday school 9:30 a. m.; prayer service following. Christian Endeavor meeting 8:30 p. m. Preaching service cancelled.

Saltcreek Valley The Methodist Aid society of Tarlton entertained a number of Aid Societies Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Edna Luckhart and Mrs. Jane Cottrill, of Colerain, were six o'clock dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Luckhart and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strous and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reichelderfer were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bowsher.

The Methodist Aid society of Tarlton entertained a number of Aid Societies Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Edna Luckhart and Mrs. Jane Cottrill, of Colerain, were six o'clock dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Luckhart and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strous and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reichelderfer were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bowsher.

The Methodist Aid society of Tarlton entertained a number of Aid Societies Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Edna Luckhart and Mrs. Jane Cottrill, of Colerain, were six o'clock dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Luckhart and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Strous and family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Judy.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Reichelderfer were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bowsher.

ent; prayer service, Friday, July 7, 9 p. m. Laurelville: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Thomas Hockman, superintendent; Evening worship service omitted.

Amanda U. B. Charge Rev. Emmett Frazier, Pastor Fairview: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; C. E. 8:30 p. m.; preaching, 9 p. m.; prayer meeting, 9 p. m. Wednesday.

Zion: Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.; preaching, 10:30 a. m.; C. E. 8:30 p. m.; prayer meeting, Thursday, 9 p. m. Pine Grove: Sunday school, 1:30 p. m.; preaching, 2:30 p. m.; prayer service, 8:30 p. m.; prayer meeting, 9 p. m. Tuesday.

Hallsville-Colerain U. B. Rev. Stanley Dunkle, pastor Hallsville: worship service, 9:30; sermon by pastor; Sunday school, 10:30; Alice Fox, superintendent; prayer and praise services Wednesday evening in charge of Bert Fox.

Colerain: Sunday school at 9:30; Herman Hinton, assistant superintendent will have charge; morning worship, 10:30 a. m.; message by pastor.

Williamsport Pilgrim Rev. Herbert Taylor, pastor Sunday school at 10 a. m.; prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m.

Tarlton Methodist Charge Rev. Charles R. Palmer, Pastor Tarlton: Morning worship service, with sermon by the pastor, 10 a. m.; church school following. (Notice change of time for church school.)

Drinkle: Church school, 10 a. m.; worship service with sermon by the pastor, 11 a. m. (Notice change in Drinkle time.)

South Perry: Church school, 10 a. m.; evening service with sermon by pastor, 8 o'clock.

Bethany: Church school, 10 a. m.

Oakland: Church school, 10 a. m. All services on fast time.

Emmett's Chapel Rev. Sam C. Elsea, Pastor Church school, 10 a. m.; worship service, 11 a. m.

Ashville United Brethren Rev. O. W. Smith, pastor Ashville: Sunday school, 9:15 a. m.; preaching services, 10:30 a. m.

Robtown: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; preaching services 8 p. m. All services on fast time.

Ashville Methodist Charge Rev. Dwight Woodworth, pastor Ashville: Church school, 9:30 a. m.; Stanley Beckett, superintendent; extended service for children, 10:45 a. m.; worship service, 10:45 a. m.

Hedges Chapel: Worship service, 9:30 a. m.; church school, 10:30 a. m.; Martin Cromley, superintendent.

Mt. Pleasant Rev. Sam C. Elsea, Pastor Church school, 10 a. m.

Kingston Methodist Charge Leroy R. Wilkin, Minister Kingston: Church school, 10 a. m. Divine worship 11:00 a. m. Special music and sermon.

Crouse Chapel: Divine worship 9:45 a. m. Sermon. Church school 10:45 a. m.

Bethel: Church school 10 a. m.

Salem: Church school 9:45 a. m.

Derby Methodist Parish Rev. S. N. Root, Pastor Derby: Sermon, 10 a. m., followed by church school. Brice Connell, superintendent. W.C.T.U. Tuesday at the parsonage.

Five Points: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; sermon, 11:00 a. m. Francis Furniss, superintendent. Hebron: Sunday school, 10:30 a. m.; sermon, 11:45 a. m. Cary Hinton, superintendent. Greenland: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Nostyn Garrett, superintendent. Pherson: Sunday school, 10:30 a. m.; Sherman Downs, superintendent.

Stoutsville Evangelical Rev. Harold Dutt, Pastor St. John: Morning worship, 10 a. m.; Sunday school, 11 a. m., Frank Drake, superintendent.

Pleasant View: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Merrill Poling, superintendent; sermon, 8:30 p. m.

St. Paul: Sunday school, 10:15 a. m.; Oakley Leist, superintendent; sermon, 11:15 a. m.

South Bloomfield Methodist Rev. Oscar King, Pastor South Bloomfield: Sunday school, 10 a. m.; worship service, 11 a. m.

Shadeville: Evening worship service, 8 p. m. The sermon subject will be: "The Parable of the Soils." All are welcome.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Try getting rid of paint spatters on window glass and screens with plain vinegar. Warm the vinegar first, as the warm vinegar does the work more quickly than cold.

When you use ceramic ware for top-of-stove cooking, start with very low heat, gradually bringing it up to the desired point. If you heat it quickly it may cause this ware to crack. The manufacturer may advise the use of asbestos mats under these cooking utensils; if so, follow instructions.

BUY WAR BONDS

BUY WAR BONDS L.M. BUTCHCO

GRANT'S Visit Our Clearance Dept. For Such Values as These LADIES' MESH HOSE Regular 59c ..... 23c LADIES' MESH HOSE Regular $1.20 ..... 47c MEN'S WORK HOSE Regular 19c ..... 9c INFANTS' QUILTS Regular $1.98 ..... $1.57 BOYS' JACKETS Regular $3.98 ..... $1.98

and Many Other Bargains W. T. Grant Co. 129 W. Main

We have joined the nationwide crusade to lower the cost of hearing with the NEW ZENITH Radionic Hearing Aid Accepted by American Medical Association Council on Physical Therapy

$40 READY TO WEAR Complete with radionic tubes, crystal microphone, magnetic earphone, batteries and battery-saver circuit. Liberal guarantee. One Model—One Price—One Quality Zenith's Finest—No extras—No "Gee-whizz"

Demonstration now going on As a franchised outlet appointed by Zenith, we join this great Crusade to lower the cost of hearing. We are happy to bring you this sensational new hearing aid which places a precision instrument of highest quality within reach of all. You are invited to attend a demonstration—let your ears be the judge. You will not be pressed to buy. The demand is so great that Zenith's problem is not sales, but supply. We sell only to those who can be helped. No high pressure salesman will call on you. There are cases in which deficient hearing is caused by a progressive disease. Therefore, we recommend that you consult your otologist or ear doctor to make sure that your hearing deficiency is the type that can be benefited by the use of a hearing aid.

SENSENBRENNERS "WATCH SHOP" 111 N. Court St. Crist Bldg.

★ STIFFLER'S STORE ★ SPECIALS FOR SAT.—ONE DAY ONLY Women's Better BLOUSES ..... $1.00 Regular to $2.98 Values Women's Better TEE SHIRTS ..... $1.00 Regular $1.98 and $2.98 Values Women's Full Fashion RAYON HOSE . 3 pr. $1.00 Regular 76c Values Women's Better DRESSES ..... $4.00 Values to $10.95 Women's Better SPRING COATS . . $8.00 Values to $19.95 ★ STIFFLER'S STORE ★

I made my own CLOSET with TRIMZ READY-PASTED CEDAR CLOSET WALLPAPER DIP IN WATER AND HANG "At last, I've got my Cedar Closet! It looks and smells just like Cedar—and I did it—in a flash!" Let us show you how to hang this amazing wallpaper. 198 Come in today. Griffith & Martin

DR. JACK BRAHMS Optometric Eye Specialist 110 1/2 W. MAIN ST. (Over Hamilton's Store) Main Office 98 N. High St. Columbus, O. • Eyes Examined • Prescriptions Filled • Glasses Repaired Office Hours Tues. - Thurs. - Sat. Evenings 7 to 10 p. m.

ROOM AND BOARD

By GENE AHERN

BLONDIE

By CHIC YOUNG

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

ACROSS

1. Rodents
2. Tree (Java)
3. Nonmetallic element
4. Peels
5. River (Eng.)
6. Goblin
7. Lairs
8. Masculine pronoun
9. Jackdaw
10. Combination of tones
11. Raised
12. Boy's jacket
13. Chief gods (Teut.)
14. Smoothing tool
15. An outer garment
16. Arranged in layers
17. Leather fastening
18. Open (poet.)
19. Indefinite article
20. Astonishes
21. Birds
22. Weed
23. Shatter
24. Commence
25. Insects
26. Paradise

DOWN

1. Change position
2. Metal
3. Enlist by compulsion
4. Type measure
5. Farther up
6. Equal
7. Hot and dry
8. Bristle-like organ
9. Wicked
10. Stitch
11. Furnished with shoes
12. Feminine pronoun
13. Commissioned
14. Uncooked
15. Ever (poet.) as war
16. Third King of Judah (Bib.)
17. Viscous substance
18. Undivided
19. Boy's nickname
20. A fastener
21. Weights
22. Skeins, as of wool
23. Sphere
24. Coin (Turk.)
25. Level
26. Carry on, as war
27. Ireland
28. Coin (Jap.)
29. Devour
30. Exist

Yesterday's Answer

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30
31	32	33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40
41	42	43	44	45	46	47	48	49	50

POPEYE

TILLIE THE TOILER

BRICK BRADFORD

ETTA KETT

MUGGS McGINNIS

DONALD DUCK

DEAR NOAH—DO POST HOLE DIGGERS HAVE TO TAKE A POST GRADUATE COURSE TO BECOME WELL DIGGERS?
FRANK HUNTER
OIL CITY, PA.

DEAR NOAH—HAVE THE SILK WORMS CHANGED OVER TO NYLON YET?
MR. ROBERT SEATON
BUFFALO, N.Y.
SEND YOUR NOTIONS TO "NOAH"
Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc.

On The Air

- FRIDAY
- 6:00 News, WBNS; Buccaneers, WLW.
  - 6:30 Johnny Jones, WBNS; Lum and Abner, WLW.
  - 7:00 Fred Waring, WLW; I Love a Mystery, WBNS.
  - 7:30 War Bond Show, WHKC; Latin America, WOSU.
  - 8:00 Kate Smith, WBNS; 17-44, WLW.
  - 8:30 Meet the Navy, WCOL; You Asked For It, WLW.
  - 9:00 Waltz Time, WLW; Pays Tenor, WBNS.
  - 9:30 People Are Funny, WLW; Brewster Boy, WBNS.
  - 10:00 Duquaine and Moore, WBNS; Amos and Andy, WLW.
  - 10:30 Bill Stern, WLW; Stage Door, WBNS; Arthur Reilly, WLW.
  - 11:00 Mrs. Minniver, WBNS; Washington, WLW.
  - 11:30 Grand Central Station, WBNS; Sons at War, WLW.
  - 1:00 News, WBNS; Home Forum, WLW.
  - 2:00 Musicana, WLW; Men and Books, WBNS.
  - 2:30 Grantland Rice, WLW; Pan American, WBNS.
  - 3:00 Minutemen, WLW; Victory F.O.B., WBNS.
  - 3:30 Milestones, WLW; Visiting, WBNS.
  - 4:00 Boone County, WLW; Horace Heidt, WCOL.
  - 4:30 The Harmonies, WBNS; Tea Dance, WOSU.
  - 5:00 Sunset Melodies, WLW; Sunset, WBNS.
  - 5:30 Duffy's Tavern, WLW; Music, WBNS.
  - 6:00 Basin Street, WLW; Mayor, WBNS.
  - 7:00 Thanks to Yanks, WBNS; Ellery Queen, WLW.
  - 8:00 Touchy-Mark, WBNS; Able's Irish Rose, WLW.
  - 9:00 Inner Sanctum, WBNS; Bob Burns, WLW.
  - 9:30 Hi, Parade, WBNS; Barn Dance, WLW.
  - 10:00 Frank Sinatra, WBNS; Top Thin, WLW.
  - 10:30 Barry Wood, WLW; Serenade, WBNS.
  - 11:00 News, WBNS; Grand Old Opry, WLW.
  - 11:30 News, WBNS; Arthur Reilly, WLW.
  - 12:00 Sayway to Victory, WLW; Casey, WBNS.
  - 1:00 Church of the Air, WBNS; Cadie Tabernacle, WLW.
  - 1:30 Boys Town, WLW; Edward Murrow, WBNS.
  - 2:00 Those We Love, WLW; Music Hour, WHKC.
  - 2:30 Fighting Sons, WBNS; Town and Country, WBNS.
  - 3:00 N. E. Philharmonic, WBNS; World Parade, WLW.
  - 3:30 Army Hour, WLW; Organ Classics, WOSU.
  - 4:00 Al Pierce, WCOL; Edward Howard, WHKC.
  - 4:30 Lutheran Hour, WLW; Stebbins, WBNS.
  - 5:00 Family Hour, WBNS; Symphony, WBNS.
  - 5:30 Baseball Scores, WOSU; Steelmakers, WCOL.
  - 6:00 Theatre, WBNS; Hall of Fame, WCOL.
  - 6:30 America in Air, WBNS; Eddie Condon, WLW.
  - 7:00 News, WBNS; Hi, Parade, WLW.
  - 7:30 We the People, WBNS; Truth, Consequences, WLW.
  - 8:00 Grace Fields, WLW; Walter Pidgeon, WBNS.
  - 8:30 Crime Doctor, WBNS; One Man's Family, WLW.
  - 9:00 Merry Go Round, WLW; Radio Digest, WBNS.
  - 9:30 Fred Allen, WBNS; Thin Man, WBNS.
  - 10:00 Take It or Leave It, WLW; Thin Man, WBNS.
  - 10:30 News of the World, WBNS; Walter Winchell, WLW.
  - 11:00 Jan Garber, WBNS; Moon River, WLW.
- SUNDAY
- 1:00 Church of the Air, WBNS; Cadie Tabernacle, WLW.
  - 1:30 Boys Town, WLW; Edward Murrow, WBNS.
  - 2:00 Those We Love, WLW; Music Hour, WHKC.
  - 2:30 Fighting Sons, WBNS; Town and Country, WBNS.
  - 3:00 N. E. Philharmonic, WBNS; World Parade, WLW.
  - 3:30 Army Hour, WLW; Organ Classics, WOSU.
  - 4:00 Al Pierce, WCOL; Edward Howard, WHKC.
  - 4:30 Lutheran Hour, WLW; Stebbins, WBNS.
  - 5:00 Family Hour, WBNS; Symphony, WBNS.
  - 5:30 Baseball Scores, WOSU; Steelmakers, WCOL.
  - 6:00 Theatre, WBNS; Hall of Fame, WCOL.
  - 6:30 America in Air, WBNS; Eddie Condon, WLW.
  - 7:00 News, WBNS; Hi, Parade, WLW.
  - 7:30 We the People, WBNS; Truth, Consequences, WLW.
  - 8:00 Grace Fields, WLW; Walter Pidgeon, WBNS.
  - 8:30 Crime Doctor, WBNS; One Man's Family, WLW.
  - 9:00 Merry Go Round, WLW; Radio Digest, WBNS.
  - 9:30 Fred Allen, WBNS; Thin Man, WBNS.
  - 10:00 Take It or Leave It, WLW; Thin Man, WBNS.
  - 10:30 News of the World, WBNS; Walter Winchell, WLW.
  - 11:00 Jan Garber, WBNS; Moon River, WLW.
- NEEDS DETECTIVE
- Alice Frost, part of NBC's sleuthsome twosome, "Mr. and Mrs. North," is looking for a detective, herself! Just back from her Chicago vacation, she celebrat-

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK

By R. J. SCOTT

ed her third wedding anniversary with Bill Tuttle, Hollywood radio producer. During an evening of night-clubbing, she mislaid a gold charm bracelet which her husband gave her on their first anniversary. She says she lost it in the vicinity of New York's Hotel Alerton, and if some sleuth, amateur or otherwise, can track the bracelet down, Alice promises a reward!

ROY HAS TROUBLES

Roy Acuff, singer of mountain ballads and touching heart songs, who is heard on the "Grand Ole Opry" is still having trouble trying to keep from being elected governor of his native state of Tennessee. Refusing the Democratic nomination after friends had gone so far as to qualify him for the primaries, he later had to be very firm with other friends to keep them from running him as a Republican. Now he is being besieged by higher-ups in the national organization of the GOP, after their convention in Chicago. Nearly everyone feels that Acuff would be a winner, but he prefers remaining with his Smoky Mountain Band, rather than climbing on any political band-wagon.

POPULARITY RISES

In the last two weeks letters from listeners to "The American Woman's Jury" have more than doubled in number. The dialers' letters have been equally divided between problems and praise. The writer, Brad Simpson, now has enough material from them to write a book about the trials and tribulations of the American public. As a matter of fact, a publisher has approached Brad to make the data into a volume.

RADIO NEWS NOTES

Milton Geiger, who writes "We Who Dream," will be one of the topnotch writers preparing dramatizations for "Men At Sea," official program of the Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration starting July 16. Purpose of the series is to recruit experienced seamen for the merchant fleet.

NEWCASTER AND ANNOUNCER JIM DOYLE

Shannon for the first time the story of David and Goliath. As he reached the climax of the story in which David kills the giant, little Miss Doyle screamed with delight, "Oh boy, the Americans have won again!"

KEN SCHON, THE BIG BASSO SOLOIST

of the "Mother and Dad" program, has a range so low that Polly Robertson in matching his notes on the organ keyboard, has tried to get below Ken's voice—but the old console can't get under Ken's bottom pitch!

THE TALLEST TOMATO PLANTS IN THE CITY

That is the joking—and mis-

LISTEN!

- TONIGHT
- 5:00 WORLD NEWS
  - 5:15 Spring Time
  - 5:30 Garden Clate
  - 5:45 Mary Martin
  - 6:00 JIM COOPER, NEWS
  - 6:15 Lynn Murray
  - 6:30 Johnny Jones
  - 6:40 Inside Hollywood
  - 6:45 THE WORLD TODAY
  - 6:55 JOSEPH C. HARSCH
  - 7:00 I Love a Mystery
  - 7:15 We Who Dream
  - 7:30 Friday on Broadway
  - 8:00 Charlie Huggles
  - 8:30 Service To Front
  - 8:45 BILL HENRY, NEWS
  - 9:00 Pays To Be Ignorant
  - 9:20 That Brewster Boy
  - 10:00 Moore & Durante
  - 10:30 Stage Door Canteen
  - 11:00 JIM COOPER, NEWS
  - 11:15 Double-13 Nite Club
  - 11:30 Boyd Raeburn Orchestra
  - 12:00 NEWS
  - 12:05 Bob Strong Orchestra
  - 12:30 Tony Pastor Orchestra
  - 1:00 NEWS
- TOMORROW a. m.
- 6:00 Musical Clock
  - 7:00 Treasury Salute
  - 7:15 Pat McGuire
  - 7:30 JIM COOPER, NEWS
  - 7:45 Early Worm
  - 8:00 NEWS OF THE WORLD
  - 8:15 Early Worm
  - 8:30 WORLD NEWS
  - 9:00 Early Worm
  - 9:25 Round Robin Review
  - 9:45 How's The Patient
  - 10:00 Youth on Parade
  - 10:30 Mary Lee Taylor
  - 11:00 WORLD NEWS
  - 11:05 Let's Pretend
  - 11:30 Fashion in Nations
  - 12:00 Theatre of Today
  - 12:30 Stars Over Hollywood
  - 1:00 Grand Central Station
  - 1:30 JIM COOPER, NEWS
  - 1:45 Wave Report
  - 2:00 Of Men and Books
  - 2:15 War Services
  - 2:30 Calling Pan-America
  - 3:00 Victory F. O. B.
  - 3:30 Visiting Hour
  - 4:00 The Colonel
  - 4:25 WORLD NEWS
  - 4:30 Hears
  - 4:45 Report from London
  - 5:00 Casey, Photographer
- WBNS
- 1460 KILOCYCLES
- *****

Circleville Citizens Approach Quota of E War Bonds

OTHER ISSUES SURPASS GOAL IN COMMUNITY

Salesmen Speed Efforts To Increase Purchases - Throughout County

Residents of Circleville have bought within $10,453.50 of their quota of Series E bonds for the Fifth War Loan Drive, Clark Will, chairman of the war finance committee announced Friday. Increased sale of these bonds during the last few days, Mr. Will, said is due mainly to the effort of the committeemen during the "Buy An Extra Bond Week" which began last Saturday and closed Thursday night with the premiere showing of "Follow the Boys" at the Grand theatre.

"Quota for Circleville for the sales of all other issues to individuals has been exceeded," Mr. Will said, "but we still are endeavoring to reach the county quota. We will not be satisfied with our job until we have sold our quota of $620,000 to the people of Pickaway county." Sales in the rural sections are just now beginning to come in, the chairman said, and now that the peak of the wheat harvest has been reached, solicitors in the townships will have more time and returns are expected to increase.

Time Extension
While the Fifth War Loan Drive closes officially, Saturday, July 8, savings bonds and savings notes processed by the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Banks between June 1 and July 31 will be credited to the drive.

A report by the chairmen of the four divisions in Circleville through July 5 reveals the division sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and headed by Don D. Henkle, manager of the G. C. Murphy company, heads the group with 189 sales totalling $57,088.75. This section lies south of Main street and east of Court street. W. G. Hamilton's section, lying north of Main street and west of Court is next in line with 99 sales amounting to $43,612.50.

One hundred ninety-eight sales totalling $34,231.50 were reported by J. H. Limbach, manager of the local J. C. Penney store who is chairman of the section lying north of Main street and east of Court street. Lawrence Johnson reported a total of $38,018.75 collected from 126 sales in his district which lies west of Court street and south of Main street.

These sales total 493 Series E bonds at $52,692.50 and 119 of other bonds at $120,254.

ROTARY HEARS CHIEF TALK ON SOCIAL SECURITY

Eighty million people are now paying social security, Mr. Putman, manager of the social security office in Columbus told Rotarians at their noonday luncheon at the Pickaway Arms restaurant, Thursday. Much valuable information was gained from the talk by the members of the club concerning matters pertaining to social security and at the conclusion of the talk questions by different members were answered by the district office manager.

The meeting was the first under the new president, Leslie L. May who announced that he would attend the district conference in Columbus, Sunday and Monday and invited as many members as possible to attend also.

Captain William Radcliff now with the armed forces and Lieutenant John Woods were guests of the club.

TWO DRAW FINES

Asa Schooley Scioto township and Nellie Cramblett of the South Bloomfield vicinity were fined $25 and costs each, Thursday by Justice of the Peace B. T. Hedges on an adultery charge filed by Mrs. Schooley. The couple was arrested by the sheriff in a cabin on State Route 104 in Scioto township, Saturday.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

ONE MINUTE PULPIT
Better is a poor and wise child, than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished. -Ecclesiastes 4:13.

Senior Choir of Trinity Lutheran church will have its regular rehearsal tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Tommy Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peters, 633 Elm avenue, David Styers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Styers, 957 South Pickaway street, and Robert Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis, 566 East Franklin street, were removed Friday from Berger hospital, where they underwent minor surgery Thursday.

Clark K. Hunsicker, of West Union street, attended the Jackson Day banquet, Thursday, at the Neil House, Columbus.

Ronald Lee and Joyce Ann Gaines are recovering at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines, 132 Mingo street, after tonsil operations in the office of a Laurelville physician.

Mrs. Robert Myers, the former Dorothy Winfough, of 129 West Ohio street, is a patient at the station hospital at Lockbourne Army Air Base, where she underwent major surgery.

There will be a 50-50 dance, Saturday night from 9 to 12 at the Eagles Home. It is open to the public.

Young People's Missionary class will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Daisy Dumm, South Washington street.

Mrs. Tessie Keys, 304 East Main street, recently elected head of the state fun organization of the Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, has resigned. Mrs. Keys has been elected supreme inspector of the National organization, and will be succeeded as head of the Ohio group by Miss Juan Hoffman, of Cleveland.

The Eagles Club will sponsor a games party at the home on East Main street, Friday night, starting at 8:30. Everyone invited.—ad.

Clifford Earl Haddox, Circleville and William Hastings, Williamsport who were sent to Columbus for induction with the June 29 group of thirty-five who went up for pre-physical examinations, have been accepted for general military service, the local selective service board was notified, Thursday.

Mrs. Belle Tomlinson of near Ashville has been removed to the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tomlinson, of near Darbyville.

A new First Aid Class is being formed and persons wishing to join are requested to call Mrs. Howard A. Orr, telephone 901.

TRUCKER DEADLINE

Monday is the deadline for truckers to get their O. D. T. certificates. They are asked to be sure and have some identifications with them when applying.

NOW WE'RE

INLAND EQUIPPED

to Handle ALL Your Tire Repairs!

DEPENDABLE 1-DAY VULCANIZING SERVICE

What's your trouble, Mister? Bruised casing? Torn tube? Gashed tread or slow leak? Wipe those wrinkles off your brow, and turn the problem over to us.

We specialize in keeping the home front on wheels! Our new Inland Complete Tire Repair Unit and Vulcanizer can handle any job on any passenger tire up to 7.50 x 16. And we'll have it back on your car in 24 hours! That's what we mean by dependable service!

Keep that in mind. It's worth knowing when tires go "bang!"

Davis Synthetic Tires are First Line Quality. Guaranteed.

Pre-War Tubes in Most Sizes
No Ration Certificate Required for Tubes

Western Auto Associate Store

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Im. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

By DREW PEARSON

(Continued from Page Four)

form which fails to specify a Federal anti-lynching law. They have always wanted the matter left to individual states.

In similar manner, progressive Republicans find that the GOP platform ducks on the poll tax. The platform advocates the abolition of the poll tax by Constitutional amendment — a good, safe proposal, because the South and other poll-tax states have enough votes to block a Constitutional amendment. There just won't be an end to the poll tax by Constitutional amendment.

On these two things, the GOP platform takes a fine, high-sounding position which form a practical viewpoint means next to nothing.

CAPITAL CHAFF

The Federal Communications Commission recently licensed a new radio station in Houston, Texas, to Judge Roy Hofheinz, after he had shown that Jesse Jones dominated all the radio stations in Houston and that they carried an amazing minimum of patriotic war appeals. But now Judge Hofheinz is encountering obstacles all along the line. Latest is a demand by the Greater Houston Broadcasting Corporation for a rehearing of his license. Interesting fact is that the secretary and treasurer of this firm are Forrest L. Andrews and Thomas D. Anderson, the lawyers who handle most of the Texas business for Jesse Jones' RFC. The weather has a lot to do with elections. Record-breaking rains, wiping out culverts and bridges in North Dakota, blocked many farmers from voting in the recent Nye primary. Most of them would have opposed Senator Nye. When some people expected D-Day to be in May, an Army crony of General "Wild Bill" Donovan remarked that this was impossible. "Donovan, though supposed to hold down a desk job," he said, "always goes ashore with every invasion." In May, Donovan was in the Pacific.

FLASHES FROM CHICAGO

The convention's forgotten man: ex-Vice-President Charles G. Dawes. Once the hero of the Dawes Plan for reparations settlement, famous for his upside-down pipe and his "hell-n-Maria" language, he stood back of the speakers' platform, unsmiling, unapplauding, unmentioned, while the crowd welcomed Herbert Hoover, the man who sent him to London as Ambassador. The convention's most nervous man: Publisher Roy Howard, attired in star-spangled shirt, nearly having heart failure when his hero, Herbert Hoover, couldn't get the microphones to work. Rushing one of his writers, Henry J. Taylor, to the stage, Roy had him straighten out the microphones while Hoover was in the middle of his speech, pantomimed back and forth regarding the sound effects. Spectators almost thought that Roy himself was making the speech.

Mollin's PERMANENT WAVE Home Kit

Complete with 50 curlers. Nothing else to buy.

- NO HEAT—NO ELECTRICITY
- NO MACHINES OR DRYERS
- NO HARMFUL CHEMICALS

59¢

BUY BONDS for FREEDOM

mykrantz

DRUG STORES

MOVIE CAMERA FILM!

PRICE INCLUDES FEDERAL TAX AND DEVELOPING—RIGHT RESERVED TO LIMIT QUANTITIES

8 mm. $1.89

25 Ft. Double

FOR YOUR PICNIC

Divided Plates, Decorated Square Plates, Dixie Cups (for hot drinks), Dixie Cups (for cold drinks), Colorful Paper Napkins, Wooden Knife, Fork and Spoon Sets.

EACH PACK 10¢

LIGHT, C-O-O-L SUN HATS

For Fishing, Boating and Victory Gardening.

SEVERAL STYLES 69¢ Each

For GLAMOROUS LEGS

ANSEHL Liquid Stockings . . . $1
HIN DY'S DURA-TION LEG-DO . . . 25c, 49c
SVELT Make-Up for Legs . . . 60c and $1
GABY Nu-Natural . . . 25c and 47c
MAVIS Liquid Hose . . . 25c and 50c

STEEL CANTEEN

Just the thing for your fishing or camping trip. Chain secured cap. Quart capacity. Black enamel inside and out, can't rust.

$1

SHOWER BAR

How wonderful to discover SHOWER BAR with its distinctive palm-leaf, non-slip shape . . . its delightfully lingering fragrance. Tree . . . Grasses . . . Flowers . . . sandalwood, bracken, yarrow, lavender, for only

$1

WRISLEY Leg Make-Up . . . 59c
ARMAND Stocking Stick . . . 39c
VENIDA Liquid Hosiery . . . 59c

Protect Your Eyes With SUN GLASSES

Numerous smart, comfortable styles. Colored shell frames. Some are "hook-ons" that may be worn on your regular glasses.

NOW YOU CAN BUY BABY PANTS

GOODYEAR baby pants, rubber-proofed with BUNA rubber — can be washed in hot water.

59¢

Luxor American Beauty ROSEBUD SOAP

Four bars of creamy-lathering soap, fashioned into full-blossoming roses!

4 Bars, boxed $1

Tired? NERVOUS? SLEEP POORLY? NO APPETITE?

Bexel

VITAMIN B COMPLEX CAPSULES

40's—98¢ • 100's—$1.98

Don Juan Lipstick

LIPS STAY LOVELY 7 STYLE SHADIS NOT DRYING or SMEARY

1.00

PRICES slashed on VITAMINS

COMPARE THESE PRICES

Remarkable Color Shampoo

TINTS HAIR as it Shampoos

Tint Color Shampoo washes out dirt, loose dandruff, grease. Gives hair a natural, colorful tint, glowing with life and lustre. Don't have faded, burnt, off-color hair. Tintz works gradually, each shampoo leaves hair more colorful, lovelier, easier to manage.

SHADES TINTZ 50¢

COLOR SHAMPOO SOAP

ASPERTANE

IT'S ASPIRIN PLUS

30 TABLETS 19¢

Gives Quick Relief!

VITAMALS

Supply the FULL daily minimum requirements of all known vitamin standards.

97¢

30-Day Supply

MINOVALS

MINERAL CAPSULES

Mineral Deficiency May Be the Cause of Nervous Diseases. MINOVALS supply adequate needs of 12 important minerals plus liver.

Bottle of 100 Tablets 100-Day Supply 79¢

FREE Vimms

VITAMINS-MINERALS

50¢ size FREE when you buy large size

$1.69

VITAMINS AND MINERALS GOVERNMENT EXPERTS SAY ARE NEEDED IN THE DAILY DIET

FREE Vimms

VITAMINS-MINERALS

50¢ size FREE when you buy large size

$1.69

VITAMINS AND MINERALS GOVERNMENT EXPERTS SAY ARE NEEDED IN THE DAILY DIET

BUY SAN-NAP-PAK

...the sanitary napkin with newly perfected "Safety-Back" and extra soft cotton cushion. Gives greater comfort, protection, and safety.

BOX of 12 22¢ 2 BOXES for 43¢

Wallace's Honey Boy Bread

Provides Those MINERALS and VITAMINS We All Need!

TRY IT TODAY!

Ask for Honey Boy at Your Grocers